The value of CSEA

CSEA is 237,000 strong, representing members from Crescent City to Calexico and everywhere in between. This guide outlines the exclusive benefits you get as a member of the best union for classified school employees in the nation. And we can be even stronger! Some of your co-workers may not be members, by choice or simply because nobody asked them. This guide is a good way to show non-members all of the valuable benefits of becoming a member.

Growing our membership not only gives us more purchasing power when negotiating these benefits; it also builds power at the bargaining table, school board meetings, the State Capitol and Washington, D.C. Talk to a chapter leader about how you can help CSEA grow!

Our mission:

To improve the lives of our members, students and community.

Recognizing our Legacy of Value

Since our founding, CSEA has fought to improve the lives of our members, students and communities. Through our 91 years, CSEA has been committed to providing top-quality representation on the job, experienced political advocacy in Sacramento and Washington, and an ever-growing list of exclusive benefits provided to all members. From informative trainings to legal referrals, scholarships and grants to car rental deals and discounted amusement park tickets, CSEA provides value to you and your family both on and off the job.

This year, as we face a number of difficult challenges, I've been thinking a lot about our rich history and how it inspires us to continue our important work—in our union, our public schools, and in our neighborhoods and communities. I've been thinking about how CSEA members have come together to fight and win some of our most important battles, and how our rich legacy of solidarity has shaped the union we love and defend. Along with our efforts at the bargaining table and in the state and federal capitols, CSEA has always provided a long list of services and other money-saving opportunities to members. This “bang for your buck” is our legacy of value at CSEA, and one which continues to guide us today.

bereavement leave, paid holidays, overtime pay and the right to join a union. In 1975, collective bargaining gave CSEA the power to negotiate at the bargaining table and represent members on the job.

Today, CSEA is a political powerhouse, with friends throughout the halls of the State Capitol, in Washington, D.C.,

This “bang for your buck” is our legacy of value at CSEA, and one which continues to guide us today.

In 1927, a group of 27 custodians joined together to support an elderly custodian who couldn't afford to retire because public schools had no pension plan for such employees. In just a year, that small group of organized custodians succeeded in getting a bill signed into law allowing school districts to provide retirement benefits to all school employees. A decade later, this led to classified employees becoming members of the retirement system that would become CalPERS.

This monumental victory could have been enough, but it was only the beginning. CSEA grew in size and strength, winning numerous victories for school employees along the way—the 40-hour week, sick leave, vacation and and on school boards up and down the state. Through the work of our dedicated activists, swift mobilization and commitment to our values, CSEA amplifies the voices and concerns of school employees, allowing 237,000 workers to speak as one.

This guide outlines the many valuable benefits available to all CSEA members. I encourage you to put your dues dollars to work and use these benefits to improve your own quality of life. We spend a lot of time working to further our union and help others. It's just as important to take advantage of self-improvement and recreational opportunities, whether it be attending trainings to improve skills or taking the family to an amusement park. The value of CSEA is here for you.

In solidarity,

Ben Valdepeña
Association President

Top-notch representation whenever you need

CSEA employs a skilled and experienced, full-time staff of nearly 300 to provide labor relations, legal and other support services to all members. Labor Relations Representatives assist members in negotiating contracts, represent members in disciplinary or other job-related matters, and organize local campaigns to elect school board members and increase funding for schools.

Our labor representatives are supported by a legal staff experienced in state and federal labor law, and who routinely argue cases before the state Public Employee Relations Board to defend members' rights and support chapters. In addition to their expertise in job-related issues, CSEA legal staff also provides free legal advice and referrals for members who need assistance with personal matters.

In addition to CSEA Headquarters, located in San Jose, our union has 10 field offices located throughout the state to best provide services to the nearly 240,000 represented classified employees. Field offices are located in Concord (North Bay), Fresno, Glendale (Costa y Valles), Los Angeles (Santa Fe), Orange, Rancho Cucamonga, Sacramento, San Diego, Santa Clara (South Bay) and Stockton (River Delta). CSEA also has an office across the street from the state Capitol in Sacramento where our Governmental Relations staff works. This location allows legislative advocates quick access to our elected officials when an important issue is being discussed on the floor of the Assembly or state Senate.

Your staff is always only a phone call or e-mail away. Don't hesitate to contact headquarters or your local field office if you have a question or need.

Thank you for the privilege to serve you

It has been a privilege to have served as Director of Member Benefits and Services for the past 26 years. It's with many mixed emotions that I will be retiring on Oct. 1. I am so proud to have been so intimately involved with the development and growth of our benefits program for CSEA members. I had a vision many years ago that by offering these services we will enhance members' lives and their experience with the union. If we make them proud to be a member by saving lots of money for them and their families, they will be forever connected to "their union".

It's gratifying to see the numbers of members who have benefited from the consumer discount programs, financial assistance, and retirement counseling provided by your Member Benefits staff.

This guide is the culmination of the annual work that goes into "improving the quality of life" for our members, students and the community. Whether it is an insurance discount, financial assistance for college or amusement park discounts, CSEA is here for you. Remember that you also have benefits provided by our affiliation with the AFL-CIO through its Union Plus programs.

It's my pleasure to have been a CSEA staff member for more than 45 years. Members have been incredibly patient with me throughout my career, and for that, I say "thank you" from the bottom of my heart.

Member Benefits

Advocacy from local districts to Sacramento

For CSEA, political action has always mattered. Our founders secured retirement benefits for classified school employees by working directly with elected officials in Sacramento. Today, CSEA has a full-time Governmental Relations staff that works non-stop to protect our pensions, secure education funding, elect officials that stand with working families, and work with representatives to support good laws and defeat bad legislation.

Along with staff, the CSEA Board of Directors, Political Action for Classified Employees (PACE) Committee and Legislative Committee all are in regular contact with elected officials from the local to national level to ensure that the interests of classified school employees are well represented.

CSEA members and staff are involved in political advocacy from the state to local levels. Funds from the Victory Club, comprised of voluntary member donations, are used to support school board candidates and parcel tax initiatives as well as statewide office elections and propositions.

The power and influence CSEA has built is a direct result of our members' hard work and dedication. And our continued success depends on our ability and desire to stand up for issues, causes and candidates that reflect our values and improve the lives of our members, students and communities. Join tens of thousands of Victory Club members by filling out an application at csea.com/victoryclub. You can also contact your local field office to learn other ways to contribute politically, such as contacting legislators to urge their support for a bill or joining a rally to support a neighboring chapter's struggle with an unfair school district. Our union is built upon our ability and willingness to help each other whenever and how-ever necessary.

Join the CSEA Victory Club

Becoming a member of the Victory Club is a major way to stand up for education and issues important to classified employees. The Victory Club is CSEA's non-partisan political action fund that focuses on increasing education funding, passing local school bonds to repair and upgrade aging facilities, and electing school board members that are supportive of classified employees.

According to Janelle Cranch, chair of our Political Action for Classified Employees

(PACE) Committee, CSEA closely examines the issues when making endorsements and utilizing Victory Club resources. Cranch, a Republican, said party affiliation is not considered when evaluating what candidates and initiatives to support.

"It's about saying to our politicians, classified employees matter," Cranch said.

The non-partisan Victory Club is made up of more than 35,000 CSEA members from around the state who understand the importance of protecting education funding, job and retirement security, and healthcare benefits.

Through contributions to the Victory Club, CSEA is able to raise vital funds to help elect education-friendly candidates who have been endorsed by CSEA. Endorsement of candidates is based on their responses to a questionnaire. Candidates must demonstrate strong support for public education and must have a proven voting record that reflects their understanding of issues that affect classified school employees.

By joining the Victory Club, CSEA members and retirees strengthen our ability to protect public education in California. Donations to the Victory Club are completely voluntary and can be in any amount, whether through a one-time donation, or through payroll or California Public Employees' Retirement System deductions. Visit csea.com/victoryclub to complete an application today!

Develop your skills and learn new ones, as well

CSEA fully embraces the belief that we can better our communities by bettering ourselves. That's one of the many reasons we offer a variety of high-quality trainings, workshops and conferences to help members excel in their careers and learn new skills.

You can sign up for training events online using the CSEA Training Directory. Trainings can be sorted based on field office, course and location. Visit csea.com/training and check out the list of events. Some of our more popular offerings include:

- California Paraeducator Conference: The wildly popular Paraeducator Conference provides a wide range of educational workshops as well as an opportunity for paraeducators to exchange ideas.
- Chapter President Leadership Program: This training program delivers high-quality, advanced training to chapter presidents, including classroom and practical hands-on training activities.
- Communications Academy: CSEA Communications Officers learn how to improve their local communications program and write better newsletters at this annual workshop.
- Union Steward Training: Union stewards get as much training as they need through the CSEA Union Steward Program. Participants get comprehensive training on everything from legal rights to listening skills.

- Officer Skills Trainings: Generally held January through April, these sessions train chapter presidents and vice presidents, secretaries, treasurers, communications officers and chief union stewards.
- Organizing Institute: During a week of intensive training, participants learn how to plan and wage campaigns on subjects ranging from electing better school board candidates to challenging contracting-out.
- Pre-Retirement Seminars: Whether you'll retire next year or in 20 years, information about your CalPERS and Social Security in retirement is useful and important.

For more information about upcoming trainings, visit csea.com/training or call your local field office.

Need a legal referral? We've got you covered

Life's twists and turns often require us to turn to an attorney for advice on how to navigate our paths. As a CSEA member, you have access to a friend in the legal industry—in this case, attorneys from CSEA's Legal Department.

All members can speak with a CSEA staff attorney about non-employment matters free of charge.

If the problem or concern requires the further assistance of an attorney, the Legal Referral Program may be able to provide you with the name of a local attorney who will provide a free consultation and may also give a discount to CSEA members.

CSEA also has a Criminal Legal Assistance Fund. Financial assistance (up to $2,500) may be provided for members in good standing alleged to have committed a criminal act during their normal job duties.

Legal Education Workshops

In addition to providing members with answers to simple legal questions, addressing members' legal concerns and providing attorney referrals, the Legal Referral Program provides educational workshops for members and retirees. These workshops are designed to assist CSEA members with various off-the-job legal topics.

For more information on these chapter workshops and the Legal Referral Program, call (800) 632-2128, ext. 1274.

Learn now how CalPERS pays you later

Regardless of your age, you should understand your retirement benefits. Even if you don't expect to retire for many years, it is never too early to begin planning for your retirement.

Get the facts:

CSEA—www.csea.com/retirement
(800) 632-2128, ext. 1205 or 1309

CalPERS—www.calpers.ca.gov
(888) 225-7377

If you are paying into CalPERS, how would leaving your current job and working in another school district, another public agency, or outside industry affect your retirement benefits? If you become a teacher can you stay in CalPERS? What if you left and went to work in private industry? What happens if you became injured or ill before reaching retirement age? What happens if you die before you retire? Where do your retirement funds go? Answers to these and many other questions are easily available by calling CSEA or CalPERS, or visiting the CalPERS website at www.calpers.ca.gov.

Tips—Getting the most from your CalPERS retirement:

Service Credit Prior to Membership—Did you ever work as a school employee less than four hours per day or as substitute or short-term employee and then move into a position working four or more hours a day, 20 hours in a week, or 1,000 hours in a year where you began paying into CalPERS? If the answer is yes, then you are eligible to purchase service credit representing the time you worked prior to membership in CalPERS. This can add significantly to your retirement income and help you vest sooner. You can even pay for this purchase over time.

Accurate Time Reporting—Ask your employer if they identified to CalPERS each actual month you worked (including summer school). It's the law!

Planning Your Retirement Date—If you are under age 63 at retirement, planning your retirement date the day after your birthday or three, six or nine months after your exact birthday may increase your benefit.

Get educated!

Attend a Pre-Retirement Seminar—

If you are within five years of retirement, attend a Saturday Pre-Retirement Seminar sponsored by CSEA's Pre-Retirement Resource Committee. Check www.csea.com/retirement for details.

$150,000 GIVEN TO STUDENTS REPRESENTING 45 UNIONS

A CSEA member and the daughter of a CSEA member have been selected as winners of the 2007 Union Plus Scholarship awards.

The winners are Mary L. Pinedo, a member of ABC Unified Chapter 24, who won a $1,000 scholarship, and Beth Williams, daughter of Leah Williams, a member of Golden Valley Chapter 311. Beth Williams won a $2,000 scholarship.

The two are among 103 students from 45 unions awarded a total of $150,000 in scholarships by the Union Plus scholarship program. The awards are being distributed to students who are from union families, or are union members themselves, attending two-year and four-year colleges as well as recognized technical or trade schools.

MARY L. PINEDO

Union healthcare benefits are a huge help when it comes to the medical bills that may accompany a family member's long illness. But when the loved one dies, there may be nothing that can help with the grief. Two years ago, Mary Pinedo lost her son due to respiratory complications.

MEMBER BENEFITS

CSEA member, daughter win AFL-CIO Union Plus scholarship awards

"I still think back the tears when I think about Jordan," Pinedo said. Today, Pinedo is focused on her younger son, Steven, her union job and improving her career prospects by furthering her education.

"Life hasn't been easy, juggling a schedule as a divorced working mother and part-time college student," Pinedo said. But she keeps her head up and focuses on the future.

"The higher the mountain," Pinedo said, "the greater the view."

BETH WILLIAMS

"I respect the concept of group unity," said Beth Williams, "and admire the magnitude of change that can be created through collective action."

Beth Williams was describing her experience growing up with a single mother, Leah Williams. But she also could be describing the group unity and collective action she and her classmates showed when they formed a non-profit organization called "Kids Helping Kids."

"We did it in order to raise money for a local charity that distributes food and clothing to disadvantaged members of our community," Beth Williams said. "We coordinated a benefit dinner and live auction at a local resort, raising more than $52,000." "I hope my experiences will render me a more distinguished and unique individual," Beth Williams said. Based on the compassion, drive and commitment to her community she has shown, it appears she already is one.

Union Plus Scholarship application information can be found at www.unionplus.com/scholarship.

Disability Income Insurance

Disability Income Insurance is a cost-effective solution designed to help protect you if you become disabled and cannot work due to a covered injury or sickness. It pays a monthly benefit amount based on a percentage of your gross income, so you may continue to afford everyday living expenses.

Accident Only Insurance

Accident Only Insurance is designed to help cover some of the expenses that can result from a covered accident, and benefit payments are made directly to you. Coverage may also extend to your family.

Cancer Insurance

If you were unexpectedly faced with a cancer diagnosis, the out-of-pocket costs your medical plan may not cover can be expensive. With Limited Benefit Cancer Insurance, benefit payments are made directly to you, allowing you to pay for expenses like copayments, hospital stays, and house and car payments.

Life Insurance

Portable, Individual Life Insurance policies may help your family in the event of your death. The application process is simple. There are minimal health questions and no medical exams required.

Your care is our concern

We believe a health care plan should be your partner in living a healthier life. That includes guidance on eating well, staying active, getting yearly checkups and preventive care services, and managing and improving your health. It's about giving you access to what you need — on your terms. Anthem Blue Cross offers a choice of plans and programs to help you reach and meet your personal health goals. We've made it our concern to get you the kind of care that fits your life and helps you live it to the fullest.

CSEA is pleased to sponsor two group dental plan options from Delta Dental. These plans are designed for our members who are not eligible for group coverage through their district or who are retired.

Group Hospital Indemnity Insurance

Hospital stays can be expensive. The plan is designed to provide a daily cash benefit, paid directly to you to use any way you decide.

Group Term Life Insurance

Life insurance is one of the cornerstones of financial planning. In the event of an unexpected or premature death, this plan can help provide the financial security your family needs.

Vision Service Plan

CSEA is pleased to sponsor a group vision plan designed for our members who are not eligible for group coverage through their district or who are retired. Don't want a group plan? A Unique Relationship – A Great Partnership

CSEA and California's Valued Trust (CVT) have a lot in common. Both organizations are member-focused, member driven. CSEA looks out for its members in countless ways. CVT does the same when crafting options for school healthcare benefit packages.

It might surprise many people to know that CSEA helped to create CVT more than 30 years ago. Representatives of CSEA sit on the Board of CVT, giving CSEA members representation and a voice which allows CVT to offer members more options and choices for their healthcare plans and benefits.

CSEA Assistance Fund helps members in need

Dorothy Bjork

CSEA

takes care of our members on the job, but we also lend a helping hand in times of crisis. The Dorothy Bjork Assistance Fund provides financial relief to members in need. The Assistance Fund, which subsists solely on the generous donations of CSEA members, is disbursed through two different programs: the Emergency Assistance Program and the Humanitarian Assistance Program. To be eligible for either program you must be a CSEA member in good standing or a CSEA staff employee in paid status. Go to www.csea.com/bjork for more information and application forms.

FUND RELIES ON DONATIONS

Support for the Dorothy Bjork Assistance Fund doesn't come from union dues—it relies solely on donations from our CSEA family. If you've already made a donation, thank you for your generosity. If not, please consider how much your contribution will be appreciated by those members in need. To make a donation, call CSEA Member Benefits at (866) ITS-CSEA (487-2732).

Emergency relief is also available for localized catastrophes such as house fires and small floods. Applications must be submitted to CSEA Member Benefits within 90 days of the catastrophe.

HUMANITARIAN ASSISTANCE

When a member incurs a significant financial hardship due to circumstances beyond their control, that member can apply for up to $500 of financial relief through the Humanitarian Assistance Program. Applications and corroborating documentation must be submitted to CSEA Member Benefits within 30 days of the financial emergency. If approved, payments will be made directly to appropriate vendors (utility company, landlord, mortgage lender, etc.).
